

Playful Printmaking!

creativity + experimental techniques for monoprints

Spend the day making art in a light filled studio overlooking the bay! Dive into the wildness of free experimentation in monoprints! Empty yourself of preconceptions! Be in the moment, trust your vision, heart and hands. You will be surprised at what you produce. Unpredictable magic will happen, guaranteed!

All levels of skill welcome—this workshop is a creative kickstart for seasoned artists and beginners alike. We'll make mixed media monoprints using everything from tabletop and hand held tools, to a lawn roller and a fine etching press. All materials, including ink, paint, paper, wood, fabric, brushes, scrapers, markers and more will be provided. You'll leave with fresh ideas and new artwork in hand.
